

Eifel German Rye Whisky 2019 Edition

Eifel Whisky's 2019 bottling of their German Single Malt Whisky was limited to 200 cases. This whisky was distilled from 90% locally grown German rye, and 10% unpeated malted barley. Distillation was done in the German tradition: a primary distillation in a column still (including the grist), followed by a second distillation in a small copper pot still. The alcohol content is reduced to 60% before entering casks. The spirit was then aged for at least two years in a mix of first fill and refill red Bordeaux casks. Following this, the spirit was aged for at least two more years in a mix of 1st and 2nd fill Malaga sweet wine casks. Malaga is a blend of PX Sherry and Moscatel, and these casks bring notes of the rich sweetness of this blend into the whisky. Eifel Whisky's 2019 German Rye Whisky earned a 92 Point rating from Whisky Advocate.

RATINGS

92 Points, Whisky Advocate: "This is a colossal rye, the result of 2 years in first-fill and refill red wine barrels, and 2 years in malaga casks. The nose suggests a thick, velvety dram of dark rye bread, cinnamon, nutmeg, rosemary, prune juice, sultana, and pecan pie, with herbal undertones. On the palate there is dark smooth toffee, stewed plum, bramble, and spun sugar stalked by ginger, pepper, and cinnamon. Oh, the Manhattans you will make."
