

Old Deer Cask Proof Swiss Single Malt Whisky

Langatun "Old Deer" Cask Proof Swiss Single Malt Whisky is produced from 100% pure barley malt. Thanks to the careful selection of high-quality yeast and the best European barley, a rich blend of vegetal and fruity aromas can be detected from the first days of fermentation. These exceptionally sweet accents can also be found in the finished product. Their time-consuming and meticulous double distillation process gives Old Deer its incomparably soft, delicate and malty character. In addition, maturation in sherry and chardonnay casks gives this fantastic whisky its outstanding complexity and elegant aftertaste. Langatun Old Deer Cask Proof Swiss Single Malt Whisky was awarded a 95.5 Point Rating and the Liquid Gold Award from Jim Murray's Whisky Bible.
